Today

AFTER THREE MINUTES

Alienists Report That Thaw Is Not Insane — He Would Not Make Any Assertions to Them.

New York, June 28.—The coroner's jury today, after three minutes' deliberation, found that Stanford White came to his death from cerebral hemorrhage, as the result of a pistol shot wound, inflicted with a revolver by Harry Kendall Thaw.

New York, June 28.—That Harry K. Thaw, the slayer of Stanford White, is perfectly sane, was the report made yesterday by the alienists retained by the district attorney's office to examine the prisoner. This report was made after the physicians had spent an hour with Thaw, who, in answer to the advice of his counsel, former Judge Olcott, refused to answer any questions and declared that nothing short of actual force would compel him to submit to a physical examination.

When the committee of physicians called upon the prisoner, Thaw said firmly, as the first member was introduced to him by Dr. Allen McLane Hamilton, retained for the defense, "I beg your pardon, I will answer no questions whatever."

Then began a general conversation on general subject with Dr. Flint and Dr. Hamilton, the defendant, parrying any questions that had any bearing on his mental or physical condition. Finding him obstinate, the doctors hurriedly summoned Mr. Olcott, but to him Thaw vehemently reiterated his determination to answer no questions.

"You can put it down to the condition of my feelings, if you will," Thaw said, "my nerves are unstrung, the tension is great. I will not be examined today."

Pressed for a clearer explanation of his refusal, he said: "I haven't any; I have none at all. Put it down to obstinacy, if you wish." He had promised Mr. Olcott before the examination not to submit to examination.

"This refusal will hurt you," Mr. Olcott said. "I don't care," Thaw said. "Nothing but absolute force will get me to allow myself to be examined or to say anything today. I think I first ought to talk with Dr. Hamilton and then have a talk with Mr. Deland. Later I will tell you whether I will talk with the committee or not."

He was then taken back to his cell.

PRETTY WEDDING AT HARDWICK.
Jessie Kimball Becomes Bride of Claude Kittredge.

Hardwick, June 28.—One of the principal social events of the season occurred yesterday afternoon at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. George O. Kimball of Glenside, when their only daughter, Miss Jessie, was united in marriage to Claude Kittredge of this place in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The Rev. S. G. Lewis of the Methodist church performed the ceremony, using the Episcopal rite. At four o'clock the bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, which was played by Miss Gertrude Lawson. Mrs. William Sheldon of New York city, a cousin of the bride, acted as matron of honor and A. J. Brown of this place was best man.

The bride was charmingly gowned in white satin and wore a veil—the matron or honor wearing white silk. The house was very tastefully decorated with white daisies and evergreen, the couple standing under a wedding bell of daisies.

After the ceremony the guests were served with tea and cake by the Misses Sadie Kimball, Mary McKee, Gertrude Lawson and Gladys Stanford. The bride is one of Hardwick's most popular young ladies—a graduate of Hardwick academy, and is much interested in social and church work.

The groom has been employed for several years in the station as express agent. They were the recipients of many beautiful and costly gifts, consisting of gold, solid silver, cut glass and china, among which being very noticeable was a solid silver tea set from relatives of the groom in England.

The happy couple will spend their honeymoon at the seashore, after which they will return here and reside for the present at the home of the bride's parents.

TRIAL FOR LARCENY.

Senator Lodge's Private Secretary Charged With It.

Boston, June 28.—There was a large gathering of Republican party leaders in the superior criminal court yesterday, where they had been called as witnesses in the larceny trial of Senator Lodge's private secretary, Robert G. Proctor. The specific charge against Proctor is that of failure to turn over to the Republican state committee $225, which John G. Bestgen of Quincy says he gave Proctor for the party campaign fund, with the understanding that he should receive through Proctor's hands a consignment to Germany.

Nearly all the members of the state committee of 1904 have been summoned to testify, among the number being James H. Reynolds, at present assistant secretary of the treasury, but formerly assistant secretary of the state committee, Chairman Thomas Talbot and Secretary of State William M. Olin.

Proctor was indicted by the February grand jury after an investigation by District Attorney Moran, and has since been out on bail waiting trial, having pleaded not guilty to the indictment.

SUPT. MORGAN IS CHARGED AGAINHouse of Correction Official Denied the Charge That He Had Used State
Supplies for His Personal Gain.

Rutland, June 28.—The committee appointed by the last legislature to investigate the state penal institutions were at the house of correction in this city yesterday to investigate charges made in anonymous letters received by them. One charge to the effect that Supt. D. L. Morgan had used supplies in improving his personal real estate was made to the committee through an anonymous letter. Mr. Morgan denied the charge in its entirety. There was no witness present to uphold the charge and the committee decided to take the matter under advisement and will announce a decision later.

The other complaint considered by the committee was relative to Guy O. Kelton and Baker's seed house of this city. The letter stated that the competition in the vegetable business in Rutland had become so keen because of the large amount of garden truck sold by the farm at the house of correction that the business was suffering. John F. Smith, who has charge of the gardens of the institution, stated before the committee that he was no competitor of Rutland gardeners. He always disposed of his vegetables at regular market prices.

The anonymous letter received by the committee was mailed in Rutland. It mentioned as a specific charge against Mr. Morgan that E. W. Bissell, in making repairs on the Morgan block, had used some material from the house of correction material. He did recall that he had fallen short on lumber for a ceiling and Mr. Morgan had sent him some on short notice. Mr. Morgan said that this lumber was bought of the prison and his cash book showed that it had been paid for.

Brandon, June 28.—One of the most brilliant weddings ever witnessed in Brandon took place in the Congregational church last evening when Dr. Charles R. Payne of Westport, N. Y., and Miss Marion L. Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bowman, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Russell H. Conwell, D. ## LOST WILL IN PIANO.

Last Testament of Biddeford, Maine, Woman.

Biddeford, Me., June 28.—The will of Mrs. George W. Ellis of 23 Foss street, who committed suicide some months ago, has been found, after a continuous search, in a piano belonging to Mrs. Ellis, which was recently sold to E. A. Alderman of Biddeford. While it was believed that Mrs. Ellis left a will and relatives searched the house from cellar to garret for the document, they finally gave up the task. The piano, which was sold to Mr. Clark recently, got out of town. When the piano tuner got to work he discovered a legal document, bank books, and some jewelry tucked away among the wires. The document turned out to be the last will of Mrs. Ellis, while the four bank books and jewelry belong to her estate.

The will disclosed that Mrs. Ellis had given nearly all of her property, including the $1,000 represented by the bank books, to her niece, Mrs. Ida M. Elden of Old Orchard.

DIVORCE ASKED.

Pauline Pierson Welch Alleges Intolerable Severity, Etc.

Burlington, June 28.—Suit for divorce was entered yesterday in the county clerk's office by Mrs. Pauline Welch vs. Walter A. Welch. Mrs. Welch was formerly Miss Pierson, adopted daughter of James S. Pierson. The petition sets up that she was married to Mr. Welch at Windsor, Ont., June 3, 1900, and that she lived with him in New York and Burlington. She alleges as grounds for divorce, intolerable severity and refusal to support.

The circumstances of Mrs. Welch's marriage, consisting of a sensation at the time and long newspaper stories were printed at that time to the effect that the young people had eloped. Mr. and Mrs. Welch have been in this city more or less during the past two years, but within the past few months Mr. Welch has not been seen here.

Bride Didn't Appear.

Wakefield, Mass., June 28.—Miss Nellie Muss was to have become a bride last evening, and everything had been arranged for her marriage to Daniel Fros of Reading, but she failed to appear and her friends say they have no knowledge as to where she is.

The wedding was postponed two weeks ago at the request of Miss Muss, and she said then that she wanted to be married at 5 o'clock evening. The best man and bridesmaid had been selected and the reception was to have been held at the home of a relative here. The guests were disappointed, as they anticipated a good time, as the young couple were very popular.

YALE TAKES
TWO EVENTSPreliminary to Big Varsity
Boat Race

AT NEW LONDON TODAY

Blue's Freshmen Won by a Length and Varsity Four-Oar by Eight—Betting on Big Event Was Even
This Morning.

New London, Conn., June 28.—The two boat races preliminary to the big event between the blue and the crimson late this afternoon were both won by Yale today. The freshman race went to the blue by a length and in the four-oar even Harvard was completely swamped. Neither Harvard nor Yale coaches would predict the outcome of the varsity race, which will be started at four o'clock. They did say, however, that it would be close. The bookmakers were quoted to be betting on the big race at even this morning. At the same time Harvard had a slight call in the freshman eight races, which went to the opposite side. Betting on the varsity was knocked somewhat askew by the result of the youngsters' meeting.

The day broke bright and fair for the annual regatta, and the 30,000 people who swarmed here predicted a fine day's sport. The weather and water conditions were just what the crews had been praying for, and when the freshman eight went to the starting line the river was as smooth as a mill-pond. Harvard rowed a good race up to the last stretch of the course, when the Yale freshmen made a great spurt. They overcame Harvard's lead and put their boat a length ahead of Harvard, all within two hundred yards of the finish line.

Then the Yale crew passed away and in good condition, while three of the Harvard freshmen collapsed in their boat. Yale's time was 10 minutes, 39 2-5 seconds.

The Yale varsity four led Harvard by eight lengths at the finish of their two-mile race. Harvard led for the first mile. Then Yale passed her rival and gradually increased her lead until the finish line was crossed.

The time of the four-oared race was: Yale 11 minutes and 45 seconds; Harvard 12 minutes and 45 seconds.

YOUNG GIRL'S HEROISM
CAUSES HER DEATHLittle Mamie Joy of Bellows Falls Tried to Save Her Younger Brother and Both Were Drowned.

Bellows Falls, June 28.—In a heroic endeavor to save her brother's life Little Mamie Joy was drowned yesterday. A picnic party was formed and loaded with lunch baskets. A group of young children were at play beside the shallow Saxon river.

Standing on a shelving rock, James Joy, a three-year-old boy, lost his lunch basket and in an effort to save it slipped and fell into the river. A few feet from the crowd of screaming children, plunged into the river and catching her brother by the coat vainly struggled to reach the shore.

The other children, paralyzed with fright, were unable to render assistance, and after a few struggles locked in each others' arms, brother and sister drifted to a deep hole and sank to the bottom.

The accident occurred some distance from the nearest house and it was some time before the fact became known. A child ran screaming to the mother's home and sobbed out the story. With a gasp Mrs. Joy fell off the floor, unconscious, and was unmercifully dragged from the shock and does not realize the loss. Divers went to the scene, and a half hour after the accident the bodies were located and recovered.

Later Harding asked Lalor to cash another check for $25 which he did.

The swindler and his wife who claimed to be on their wedding tour, left for Albany last night. When the hotel man discovered his mistake he immediately telephoned to Albany and Harding was arrested there last night. If he does not settle extradition papers will be taken out.

AFRAID OF FATHER-IN-LAW.

Peter Romano Not Found Guilty of a Breach of the Peace.

Rutland, June 28.—Peter Romano of this city was arraigned in court yesterday on the charge of breach of the peace, the complaint having been made by Angelo de Lorie, his son-in-law. The trouble began about a month ago, when de Lorie began paying attentions to Miss Mary Romano.

The father of the girl objected very strenuously to the young man's suit for a divorce. The young man eloped a few nights ago and was married at Albany, N. Y. It was when they returned Tuesday that Romano approached de Lorie in a violent mood.

De Lorie became frightened and had his father-in-law arrested. He was not acquitted, however, as evidence was not strong enough to hold him.

An alarm was given and the fire was found to be in a cupboard in a bed room. Dr. Black was present and soon put out the flame. How the fire started is a mystery. A chimney stood on this cupboard but there was no stove in the room nor fire in the chimney. A stranger slept in the room last night. No great damage was done except by smoke and water.

BY VOTE OF 254 TO 154

Committees of the Democrats and the Independents Meet in Conference to Select a State Ticket.

Burlington, June 28.—The state Independent, or Clement, convention was called to order this forenoon at 11:15 o'clock in the city hall, and at about the same time the state Democratic convention was opened in The Strong theatre. The former, shortly after organization, chose a committee to confer with a similar committee from the Democratic convention, but the latter did not move so rapidly. After a sharp encounter between the fusionists and the advocates of a straight Democratic ticket the former won out and chose a conference committee.

E. J. Hall of Bennington called the Independent convention to order, being chairman of the state committee. Zenas Elliot of Fair Haven was elected temporary chairman and W. C. Smith of West Rutland as secretary. Later this organization was made permanent. Then two committees were chosen as follows: On resolutions, H. L. Hindley of Rutland, Glenn Williams of Morrisville, H. M. Dufur of Bedford, S. R. Hutchins of Lyndonville and P. E. McCarthy of Barre; committee on conference, E. J. Hall of Bennington, S. J. Beatty of Burlington, L. S. Lombard of St. Albans, W. H. Putnam of Springfield and R. S. Smith of Bristol.

The committee on conference drafted a statement to the Democratic convention, asking that body for a friendly conference with the view of uniting on a platform and candidates. The convention adjourned at noon.

Meanwhile the Democratic convention was in session at The Strong theatre. E. S. Harris of Bennington, chairman of the state committee, called the convention to order and V. A. Bulard of Burlington was elected as chairman, and H. C. Shurtliff of Montpelier, O. C. Sawyer of Sharon, and E. D. McGinnis of West Rutland were chosen as secretaries. The matter of contested delegates from Rockingham was considered at length. The convention finally decided to seat all the delegates that were seated. The question of the appointment of a committee to confer with the Independents called out a long and heated discussion.

A motion was made to appoint a committee of five to confer with the Independents, and an amendment was offered that the committee be composed of one member from each of the following counties, to consider none but a Democrat at the head of the state ticket. It was on this amendment that the fusionists showed their strength in the convention, winning out by a majority of 100. When the vote on the amendment was taken it was voted down, 254 to 154. Then the original motion was put and carried. A conference committee was then chosen, of which C. W. Melcher of Barre was made chairman. The committee was instructed to confer with the Independents and report again to the Democratic convention at 3 o'clock. The battle is won by the fusionists almost beyond question.

MAINE REPUBLICANS
REJECT RESUBMISSIONFavor Continuance of Prohibition Law by Three to One at Yesterday's Convention.

Portland, Me., June 28.—The Republicans of Maine yesterday renominated Gov. William T. Cobb of Rockland for a second term.

The convention was notable, not only as one of the largest in recent years, but more especially on account of the effort made by Lewiston and Bangor delegates to introduce into the platform a plank favoring the resubmission to the voters of the question of continuing the prohibitory law which has been in force for the past 30 years.

The attempt failed, a minority report of a resubmission resolution being rejected by a rising vote of about three to one. Nevertheless, Lewis A. Barker of Bangor, Archie E. Talbot of Lewiston and Benedict Maher of Augusta, speaking for resubmission, were well received by the convention.

Three of the hits off Watson were made by Burns, who seemed to have a particular liking for the spit ball. Davis and Williams, two of the new men, also had a leaning the same way, the former getting a home run and a single and the latter a three-bagger and a single.

The Game.

Ottawa started off to score in the first inning, Burns giving them a hit with a pass to Durkee as a starter. Durkee looked a gift horse in the mouth then by stealing second as neither Elliott nor Unice covered. Dorman and Ray struck out, but Sanger laid against the ball for two bases and Durkee scored. Shaughnessy slashed a single into right field and Sanger tried to score, but was nailed at the plate by a pretty throw by Blaine, making the third out.

The Champions went them one better in the second, however, and all earned. Davis scratched a hit and stole second handily. Daniels followed Blaine with a sacrifice and after Blaine had struck out Burns came up. "Just like a hot hell hit it," remarked somebody, and hit it he did—a good clean swat for a base—and Davis scored. Williams pasted the ball over the left fielder's head for three sacks and Burns got across.

Two Bases on First Ball

The home grounds yesterday after two successive shut outs, but it took twelve innings of fast ball playing to do it.

With two Intercity men on bases and one down in the last half of the 12th and with the Canadians one run to the good, Capt. Dorman pulled Watson out of the box and put in big Hildebrand. George Eaton laid his bat against the first ball pitched by the ex-Princetonian and while Sanger was chasing the ball Elliott scampered across the plate with the tying tally and close behind him speed Ashmore with the winning run, although the ball was relayed in so fast that Ashmore had an extremely close call. The score was 6 to 5.

It was just such a finish as makes baseball so uncertain and so tremendously exciting. Nearly 1,300 people witnessed the game and were kept on pins and needles all the afternoon.

The Champions played a faultless game in the field, making not the least semblance of an error. There were also some plays little short of marvelous. The outfield covered a great deal of territory, and with the exception of one fly which Davis lost sight of in the sun, captured everything that could be captured. The infield dug grounders out of the dirt in finished style and followed them up with lightning throws to the bases. Williams and Elliott had their hands full and little "Bobby Burns" in the pitcher's box played a splendid fielding game. Ashmore pulled in a wide throw from Williams with his bare hand in the eleventh inning and saved the nearest approach to an error. Eaton, behind the bat supported Burns as he only can.

Ottawa,
